

Magistrates' Court
Victoria

Practice Direction

No. 3 of 2002

Applications for Bail After Committal for Trial

Background

Changes in County Court Case Management have resulted in the need to update Practice Note No. 4 of 1999. That practice note is hereby revoked.

New Practice Note

Practitioners are advised that the Magistrates' Court will continue to entertain applications for bail, variation and revocation of bail after committal for trial up to Case Conference or Directions Hearing in the County Court, after which any such application should be made to the County Court.

This Practice Direction has effect from the 1st January 2003.
