

FEDERAL JURISDICTION PROCEEDINGS

ANNEXURE – APPLICATIONS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS MATTERS

WHO SHOULD USE THIS FORM?

This form should be used if a federal jurisdiction application to the Magistrates' Court is being made, and the matter relates to a section of the following Acts (select all that apply):

- Equal Opportunity Act 2010
- Health Records Act 2001
- Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014
- Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001
- Gender Equality Act 2020
- Other, please specify

This form must accompany the "Form 10A" and filed together with relevant supporting documentation.

APPLICATION INFORMATION – TO BE COMPLETED BY APPLICANT

1. APPLICANT INFORMATION

This section applies to applications pursuant to the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 and Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001.

Select what the application is about:

- Discrimination
- Sexual harassment
- Failure to make reasonable adjustments for a person with a disability
- Failure to make reasonable adjustments for a parent or carer
- A manager or former manager of an owners corporation
- Victimisation
- Racial vilification
- Religious vilification
- Other, please specify

Did the most recent incident happen more than 12 months ago?

- Yes
- No

Are the incidents still occurring?

- Yes
- No

Has a complaint or dispute been lodged with another organisation?

For example, the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission, Australian Human Rights Commission.

- Yes
- No

If Yes – provide details:

2. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Ensure this application is lodged with any material that supports the application.